THE HISTORY OF WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP SCHOOLS

Sometime in the early 1830's, Dr. H. H. Fowler, one of the early settlers of Washington township, laid out the town of Sydneyham, naming it after the English town from which he had immigrated. He plotted this town on the west side of what later became the Goshen-Bristol road. Later, in 1934 Samuel P. Judson, a merchant from Buffalo, New York, moved there. Sometime later, he and Hiram Doolittle laid out a portion of the town on the east side of the road. The two rival villages existed for a short time and then merged under the name of Bristol. Some of the early settlers were from Bristol, England, and this is supposedly how the town acquired its name. In June of 1869, the town was incorporated and continued to grow by leaps and bounds.

As the town grew, so did the educational needs. Miss Wheeler was the first teacher of Bristol. She began in 1838 in a log cabin schoolhouse along the St. Joseph River. The front of the little "temple of knowledge" had a large porch and was lined with large pillars at the back. The inside was quite crude. Along the walls were benches and desks for the older children. In front of these desks were more benches where the smaller pupils sat holding their books. The teacher's desk and a stove completed the equipment.

THE FIRST SCHOOL BUILDING--BUILT IN 1838

In 1880 the school was moved to another small building where all twelve grades were taught. The building consisted of two rooms upstairs, both of which were used for the high school grades. One room served as a recitation room and one as a study room. The two downstairs rooms each contained three grades. This same building is still standing in Bristol; it is now the Simplex Pump Company. When this building was declared inadequate for the educational needs of the town, both the town and rural population were forced to submit tax money toward the payment of a new school for the town and country children. The authorities then began the plans for a building and for the consolidation of the town school and the seven township schools.

THE SECOND SCHOOL BUILDING--BUILT IN 1858

GRADUATING CLASS OF 1885

The first class composed of six members graduated from Bristol High School in 1885. The principal of the high school that year was Mr. O. Z. Hubbel.

The commencement exercises were held in the Hilbish Hall. The graduates were Chester Cone, Richard Lake, Ornie Sterner Silvers, Nellie Birch Paxton, Henry Milburn, and Augusta Weipert Shiffer.

SCHOOL BUILDING--BUILT IN 1903

In 1903, under the administration of trustee John H. Virgil, work was begun and by 1904, the $16,000 building stood completed. The high school was commissioned in 1907 and a class of six was graduated in 1908. The school grew rapidly from the thirty pupils in 1908 to over eighty in 1918.

J. E. Newell was the first superintendent of the school system. Manual training and a boys basketball team were first started by Mr. Snapp. Music was introduced by Mr. Kolb and later improved by Miss Helfrick.

SCHOOL BUSES IN 1903

In 1917 exciting new improvements were made. Early in the year, electric lights were installed in the halls and main rooms of the building and books were borrowed from the Elkhart Library for use by students and patrons of Bristol.

The first addition, which was added to the school in 1923, was a blessing to all because it meant the first indoor rest-rooms.

ADDITION ON WEST END--BUILT IN 1923

In 1925 a gymnasium was added on to the school building and provided for athletics and dramatics. The gym included a stage adorned with blue velvet curtains. A kitchen and cafeteria were also built in the new addition. In 1937 showers were added.

THE GYMNASIUM--BUILT IN 1925

In August of 1939, the Home Economics room was remodeled, complete with an electric stove and built-in cupboards. The Home Economics class made some of their own clothes and occasionally fixed luncheon treats for the school.

In 1940 the school bell, which had been in the hall was moved to the school yard, where it still stands.

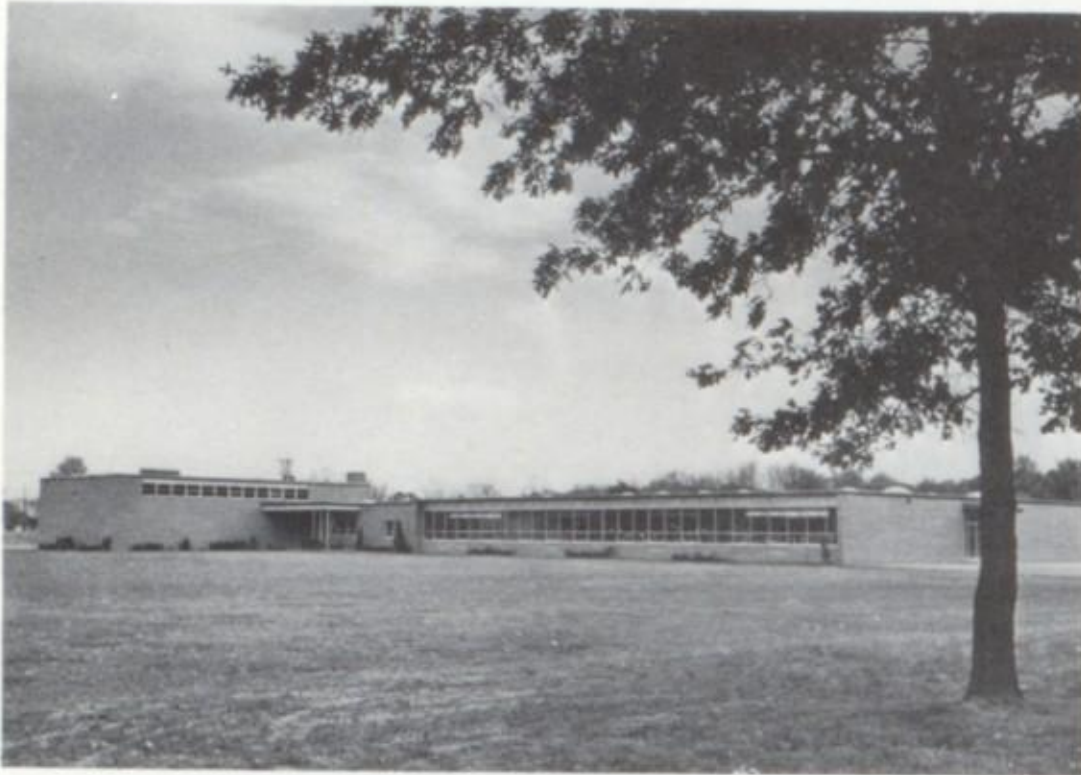

In 1949 a large addition was put on the west side of the building and a power plant built. The older portion of the school was completely renovated. Plastering was done, steel stairways put in, and tile floors laid. But the new addition and renovation still could not keep pace with the ever-growing population. Consequently, in 1957 a new modern elementary school was completed and dedicated. It was located on the south side of Bristol, on Indiana Street. The school contains twelve classrooms and a large all-purpose room which is used as a cafeteria. The room, complete with stage, also provides a place for special programs and events. The school was built to accommodate grades one through six, leaving grades seven through twelve at the high school.

WEST ADDITION--BUILT IN 1949

The 1960's have brought many more changes and improvements in our school. In 1961 an audio-visual room was provided for in the high school. This has been serving as a teacher's work-room and storage room for duplicating machines and supplies. 1961 also introduced television in the classrooms. Other improvements which have been made recently are the modernization of the science laboratories and the commerce room and new equipment in the shop room.

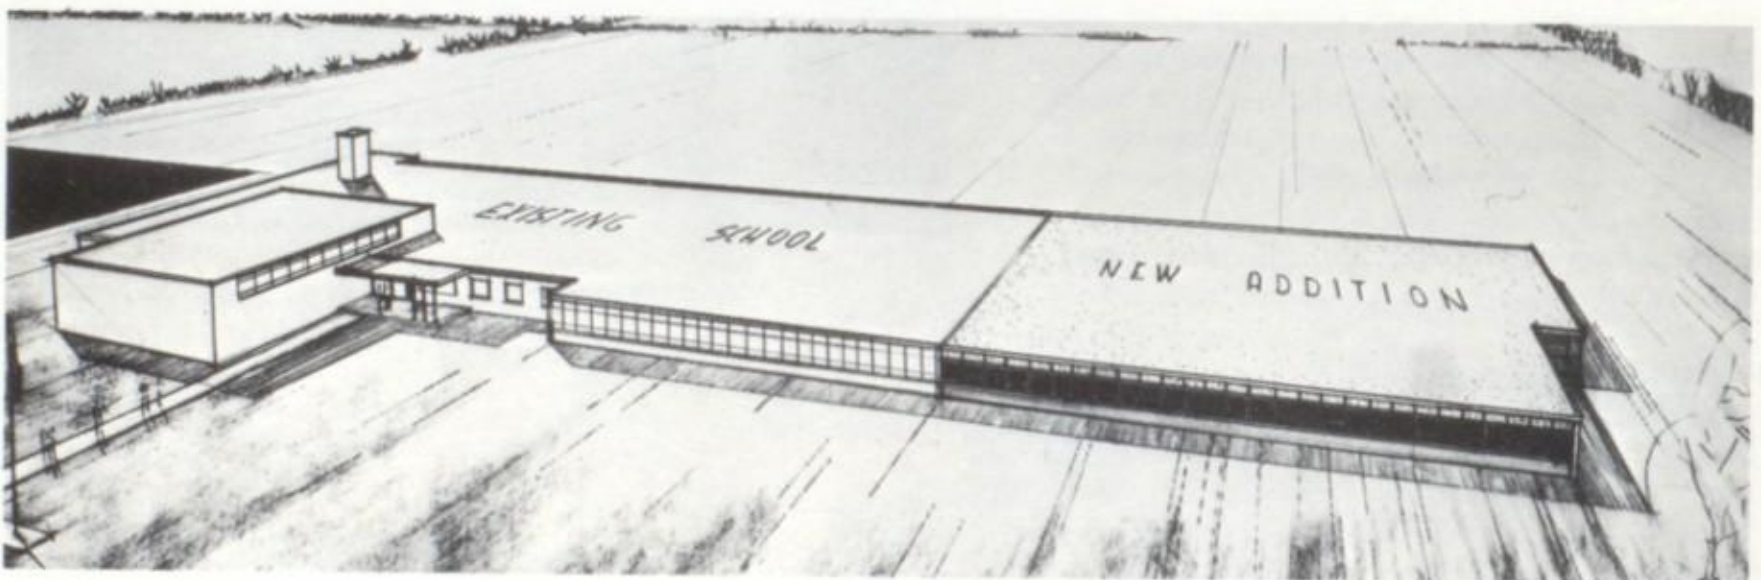

In 1962 our first guidance office was set up. This small collection of books and reference materials has grown, and now contains information on most colleges, universities, and professions. During the summer of 1963, the outside of the school received an entire "face-lifting"--the entire building was sand-blasted and painted. New florescent lights were installed in all rooms and the gymnasium. This made a great improvement in the physical plant. In 1964 the Home Economics room was completely refurnished. 1964 also brought more provisions for athletics; a new track was made at the elementary school. In the spring of 1965 new drinking fountains were installed in each hall and the gymnasium.

As more and more improvements were made at this, the first consolidated school in Elkhart County, the increasing population still remains the greatest factor to be considered. The enrollment for grades one through six is now at 377 and 306 for grades seven through twelve.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL BUILDING--BUILT IN 1957

Excavation is already underway for the construction of an addition to the elementary school. The addition will include six classrooms, one of which will be used for kindergarten. A music room and materials center will also be included.

1965 PLANNED ADDITION TO THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

As we have looked upon the progression of the Bristol school, we have seen the hopes, work, and ambitions of countless people becoming a reality. Now, as the past assures the future, we, the graduating class of 1965, leave with our own futures made possible by Bristol High School.

Judy Morningstar and Susie Bloomingdale received sweater awards for Varsity cheerleading.

ACTIVITIES

We, as Juniors, held the distinction of having tried a very serious play for the first time in recent years. The play, "Twelve Angry Jurors," dealt with a jury deliberation on a murder trial. The main objective of this was to broaden the scope of understanding. Any controversial play is received with mixed feelings, and ours was no exception; we received raves and also adverse criticism.

"... and four to go, a creation of our director, Mr. Gleim, was one of the most unusual plays produced at Bristol. The play was a series of one-act plays spanning a time period of twenty centuries. This combination was able to show the real acting ability of the students, and the audience showed a real appreciation of the comic situation of Androcles, the tragic cause of the witches, the ironic situation of "The Right Kind of House," and the obviousness of "The Powers That Be."

MOONLIGHT, CANDLELIGHT AND YOU . . .

Janet Erickson reigned as Prom Queen this year. Senior attendants were Judy Morningstar and Lynn Van Skyhock. Junior attendants were Lynn Wilcox and Diana Stutsman.

The TEEN-TONES from South Bend supplied the music.

THE GRADUATING CLASS

Susie and Gary received the Legion award.

Our commencement was held May 26 in the high school gymnasium. Dr. John M. Kirkpatrick, a Methodist minister from Fort Wayne, gave the address entitled "Writing Your Own Ticket."

Baccalaureate services were held the preceding Sunday evening at the Zion Lutheran Church with Pastor Donald Dow officiating and the Rev. Lowell Townsend assisting.

Citizenship awards went to Carol, Beverly, Eleanor, JoAnn, and Judy. Betty Crume also received this award.

Sunday, May 9th, we left on our Senior trip for Washington D.C., New York City, and the New York World's Fair. Monday and Tuesday were spent in Washington seeing various historical sites, including tours through the Capitol Building and the White House. Wednesday we toured New York City, ending the evening with a movie and stage show at Radio City Music Hall. Thursday was spent at the World's Fair. We arrived back at the school Friday noon tired but happy.

SPECIAL AWARDS

Music sweater awards were received by Elaine Erb, Linda DeLucenay, and Susie Bloomingdale. Sweaters are awarded to seniors for active participation in band and/or choir throughout their high school years. A point system determines the recipients of these high awards.

Bristol's only two entrants in the state music contest were Steve Erb, whose drum solo received a superior rating, and Steve Stutsman, whose vocal solo received an excellent rating.

Ann Brown was the winner of the spelling bee at the elementary school; Carol Danielson was the runner-up. Janet Detwiler won the junior high contest and Kathy Abbott was the runner-up.

We want YOU!!!

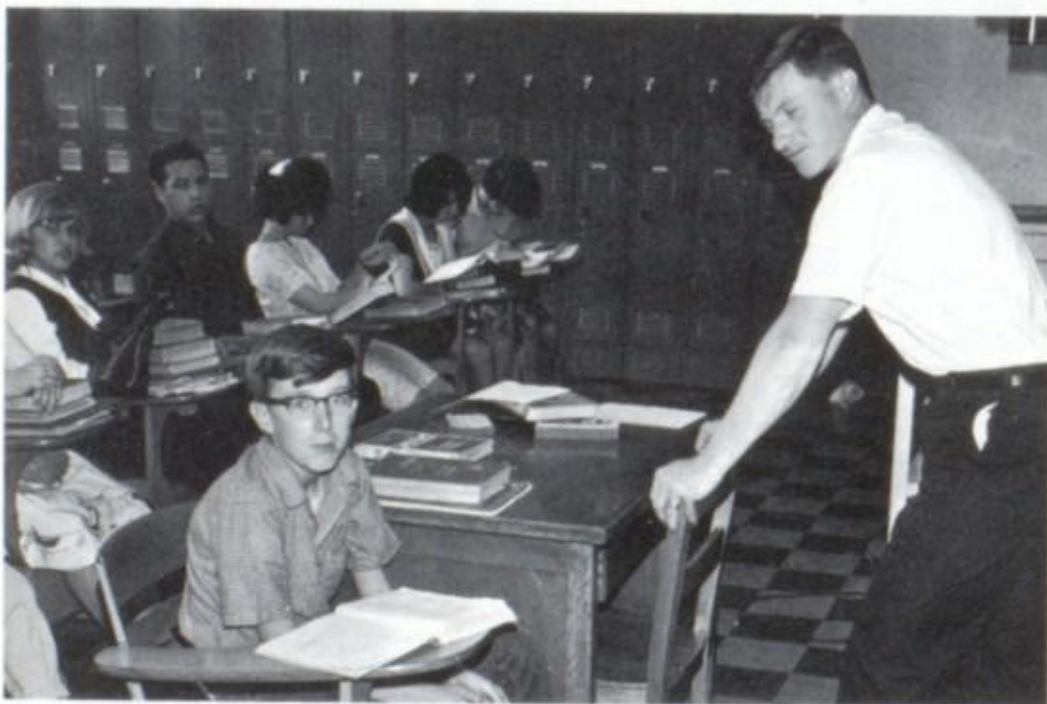

For that cover girl complexion . . .

I know I should brush after every meal, but . . .

PEACE!

Mr. Schultz honors Kevin by placing him at the head of the class.

I dreamed I danced all night in my new gym suit.

"These two compositions are exactly alike word for word."

We, the editors, would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has made this year's Voyager possible.

Our special thanks go to Mr. Yoder and Mr. Thompson, our advisors, and Mr. Hastings, the yearbook representative.

We hope that you will enjoy this year's Voyager as much as we have enjoyed editing it.
